

As time went by

Days they come and go in this thing that we call life
You're born and you grow up and perhaps you find a wife
But we never really know when the road will meet its end
But one day will come when our days are spent

The world is spinning fast and time's not on our side
But we have to choose what to make of what we got
So it's really up to you to decide and to prioritize
You can be in charge of your own life to.
